New Coaches Highlight Upcoming Tryouts for Arroyo Volleyball Club

Pasadena, CA - September 22, 2009

The Arroyo Volleyball Club of Pasadena, CA has bolstered its coaching staff with the addition of Head Coaches Jenny Ma, Siha Collins and Ivan Martinez.

Jenny Ma attended the University of Dayton on a full volleyball scholarship where she was selected Division 1 all district player of the year. She came to Dayton after playing for the Chinese National Volleyball Youth team and the Yaohan International Super Star Team where she played for Lang Ping, Coach of the US Women's Olympic Team. Jenny has coached teams in China as well as the U.S. and brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to the program.

Siha Collins was recruited by the University of West Georgia after a successful club volleyball career. She was a starting middle blocker and Captain of the Women's Varsity team for all 4 years. She is the all-time career record holder for blocks, and also holds positions on the all-time career lists for attacks, aces and kills. She has run volleyball camps and coached middle and high school students in the Georgia area. She has recently located to So Cal and is excited about leading a team of young women.

Ivan Martinez had a successful coaching career at Verdugo Hills High School under Will Reinhart. As Head Coach, he led the JV team to 4 undefeated league championships and was integral in the Varsity teams 2 league championships and win at the LAUSD Invitational Championships. He brings great experience both as a player and coach and has a great enthusiasm for volleyball.

Arroyo Volleyball Club is committed to providing a "positive educational experience" and an opportunity for all players to develop their skills in our club and clinic settings.

Tryouts start on October 4 for the 12, 13, and 14 age groups in with the 15, 16, and 18 age groups in November.
